six bridges presents...

In addition to our event in October, the Six Bridges Book Festival brings you authors and book discussions throughout the year. Register for these sessions at SixBridgesBookFestival.org.

Eric Cervini

THU | JUN 3 | 6:30 PM

In 1957, like many federal employees before him, Frank Kameny was fired for being gay. Unlike many others, he fought back. Harvard- and Cambridge-trained historian Dr. Eric Cervini reveals the secret history of the fight for gay rights that began a generation before Stonewall.

Sarah Everts

THU | JUL 22 | 6:30 PM

Sweating may be one of our weirdest biological functions, but it's also one of our most vital and least understood. Everts takes you on a taboo-busting romp through the shame, stink, and strange science of sweating.

Sponsored by UAMS Departments of Dermatology and Medical Humanities & Bioethics.
