Save the date! Black Family Expo

Saturday, February 7 | 11 AM–2 PM | Main Library

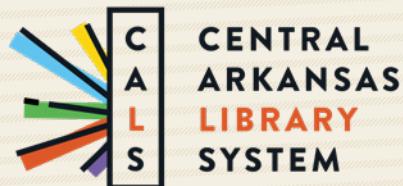

Join CALS for our 4th Annual Black Family Expo, a celebration of Black history, heritage, and community in Central Arkansas. Learn about families with deep roots in the region, explore library resources to help preserve your own family's history, and sign up for a library card. Black History Month giveaways will be available all day—stop by and celebrate with us!

Families and organizations are invited to reserve a table to display memorabilia with ties to Central Arkansas's Black community. To reserve a table, contact Community Outreach Archivist Danielle Afsordeh at 501.320.5726.

Visit with staff from the DIY Memory Lab and CALS Roberts Library to learn how to preserve your family history. The Mobile Memory Lab will digitize up to five items per family (documents, photos, or slides), and each family will receive a flash drive with their scans. No reservation required. You can also reprint a scanned photo for our community memory wall.

Enjoy a day full of activities, including the CALS Cruiser bookmobile, a craft table, a live artist demonstration, and a souvenir family photo session from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Come celebrate our shared history and create new memories with CALS!

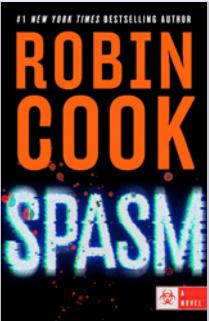

Carnival of the Animals with the Arkansas Symphony Orchestra

Saturday, January 31 | 10:30 AM–2 PM | Main Library
Martin Children's Center (Room 131)

Bring the entire family to the Main Library for an event filled with animals, music, and fun! Enjoy a special performance of "Carnival of the Animals" by ASO, followed by a DIY Dog Treats class and animal crafts. Meet adoptable dogs courtesy of our friends at the Humane Society of Pulaski County.
